Man watching porn with woman As the straight world has come to see women as a separate and essential part of human nature, female porn performers have risen to the top. Fans of the genre debate the merits of these ladies as performers and rely on a complex set of criteria to identify the best ones: from under-educated and shy, to stunner-who-learned-to-do-this-on-the-job, to decadent and dirty, most fans are dedicated to the belief that the ideal porn star is the best version of herself. That being said, these ladies are the best and sexiest, and they only know how to talk dirty, make a guy cum or spit on them. Dressed in high heels, bodysuits, underwear and lacy lingerie, they turn the pages of Playboy and may even take the Time Out of the equation. They set the standard for what female porn performers can be. But wait a minute! Remember, they're women. And why is it that for some reason men love porn with women in it? This book by pornstar Anya Ivy digs into the reasons, and explores the upsides and downsides. Rightly or wrongly, male viewers have an affinity towards female performers.

We've taken a look at the history and basic who-are-these-ladies and why-do-they-do-what-they-do, and then taken a look at the ways people actually choose these women. Not only is she horny and sure of it, she takes what she wants, and she wants us to watch her do it. From a guy perspective, we know it feels sexy, even in the presence of a woman if she's engaging, she's playful, seems excited about the moment. We know her attention to detail, her passion for pleasuring him, the way she takes his length and makes it hers. From a female point of view, there's the fact that she's a woman, is on her own, it's her performance, and she's delivering it to a man. She's got all the power. She's the actress; she's the star of the scene.

The guy's the audience. She's confident, flirty, engaged, and smiling through all of it. She draws us in. We look forward to and savor the taste. Home - On Private Girls u
