Full Body Motion Capture: More Real and Dynamic Player Movement: In FIFA 22, players will experience realistic movements and collisions during gameplay, while maintaining a consistent game speed. That helps differentiate FIFA 22 from previous iterations of the game. Improved Player Animations: Better control of all players at all speed levels, with more natural movement and the ability to execute more complex and varied and more realistic running animations. Realistic Player Trajectories: Players will travel along natural paths, while hitting the ball harder and more consistently. Enhanced Atmosphere: Crowds and fans return to the game, bringing intensity to soccer gameplay and interactions between fans and players. Better Ball Physics: A more realistic and reliable ball physics engine allows for more creative movement and improves ball control. Combined with real-life physics, the ball will have a more realistic and agile touch, making for beautiful and flowing football. Constant Game Speed: Pre-match game speeds can be personalized to your play style. Or, a precise match speed can be set that will smoothly and consistently move you through the game. Timed Goals and Breaks: More goals and much more speed with timed goals. More Leagues, More Players, More Intensity: FIFA 22 brings a totally new lineup of historically accurate national teams that will satisfy the longest-suffering fans in football. New 22 Player Lineup In total, the new FIFA 22 player roster includes 22 licensed international players from 20 different countries, including Bayern Munich's David Alaba, Paris Saint-Germain's Javier Pastore, Atletico Madrid's Antoine Griezmann, Juventus's Alessandro Florenzi, and Chelsea's Eden Hazard. New FIFA 22 players include: Europe England: Harry Kane Italy: Cristiano Ronaldo Germany: Mesut Ozil France: Kingsley Coman Sweden: Jesper Drost Switzerland: Granit Xhaka Russia: Vasily Berezutskiy Portugal: Cristiano Ronaldo Spain: Keylor Navas Morocco: Nabil Fekir Asia Australia: Mathew Ryan Indonesia: Khairul Amri Iran: Karim Ansarifard Japan: Yuto Nagatomo Philippines: Brazil: Everton Argentina

FIFA is the world's leading videogame brand*. It is the best-selling videogame franchise of all time, with over 120 million units sold. It's where the world plays. *As of October 2017, as per Kantar. Features Power Your Team With a brand new power meter in game, players will experience greater control and more opportunities to take on the opposition. In addition to marking the return of a short pass option, players will also have more control on where they receive the ball, which is designed to create opportunities to attack. A new Pure Kicks option gives players the ability to attempt a 50/50 ball with a defender on the edge of their box. These and other new features enhance players' ability to dictate the pace and intensity of the game. A new second touch in the penalty box allows players to change the ball before the defender is making contact, offering a new avenue to goal. New Power Play Tool Move the ball to the open man in the offensive zone, and then make your move when he's in position. Or use a new quick pass function to get the ball into a forward's feet. Now there's an opportunity to attack from any position. A New Era of FIFA Football retains its unique identity as the most popular sport in the world, and now it's even more accessible than before. The all-new EA SPORTS FIFA experience includes new touches that enable players to easily connect with football. An expanded suite of social features enhance the popularity of the game and the online experience, and the award-winning Frostbite Engine helps bring the game to life. More than 10 Years of Football Experience The new FIFA experience starts from the introduction of the ball down to the final whistle. From your team's first touch to the final pass, every aspect of the gameplay has been evaluated to deliver the most realistic feeling of the game. With all-new gameplay features, players can now see and feel the contact on the ball, as well as the pressure applied by defenders. Players have complete control over the ball, and with goalkeepers that makes every save vital. Authentic Football Thrills Over 120 years of football. Unparalleled authenticity. Players are breathing life into more than 70 licensed leagues. The most accurate player models on the market. Real-world animations and bc9d6d6daa
