■ OVER 9000 ■ Zooming in 20-30% ■ 60 Levels in 4-minutes pace The player controls a ball with numbered circles and he can't fall in the pits. The player can use three different weapons (he can shoot with them and they will delete one circle every time) and two special squares (Blue square moves the ball in the direction of next square and Red square deletes a circle) which are not visible in the playing area and only available as references. This game was created using the engine Code Sprite Player Game. This engine is available in the following websites: Blog: Fansite: Facebook Page: Twitter: @Zupcom This is the sequel of my first original game. Zup! F stands for "Zup! F!" It is an Educational Puzzle Game, inspired by the classic "AlphOrbit" and "Frozen Bubble" games. This game is fun, addictive and it is inspired by the different languages around the world. Have fun! Game features: ■ Levels with three different types of enemies: In 1-Arrow Levels, the player has to keep the arrow on the path of the ball. In 2-Arrow Levels, the player has to keep the arrow on the path of the ball while avoiding all enemies. In 3-Arrow Levels, the player has to keep the arrow on the path of the ball while avoiding all enemies and multiple balls. ■ Symetrical Levels ■ Game mode with a special power-up ■ Level selection for training ■ Stages for the podium ■ Achievements and Stages with emoticons ■ Play the same sequence of Levels again and again ■ Stats for each Level ■ Leaderboard ■ Statistics for the player ■ Tweeting And many many more... Have a good time and let me know what you think of the game. Don't forget to share the game with your friends! And to change the game language, press the button 'Languee' at the bottom right corner of the game. "The good doctor" is a zombies' game based on an entertaining Nintendo DS touch screen.
